

Paint & Explore Italy

Tuscany/Emilia-Romagna Painting Workshops

Many activities for non-painters too

We would like to invite you to take an inspirational journey through the picturesque Italian landscape of Tuscany/Emilia-Romagna hills in Italy, with two stimulating tours.

Oil, Pastel & Drawing Techniques with Jeff Murphy

25th May - 9th June 2013

With the guidance of guest artist, Jeff Murphy, learn the techniques of oil painting, pastel and drawing. This workshop will explore the aspects of proportion and scale, composition, space, light and form. You will receive group tuition as well as feedback and support. Each lesson is instructive, informative and set in the beautiful surrounds of the Italian countryside, which allows a wide variety of scenes and subjects, to paint and draw, to please everyone.

Watercolour & Drawing Techniques with Janette Garbuio

15th June - 29th June 2013

Ideal for beginners or advanced painters, Janette Garbuio will teach the skills of watercolour painting and drawing techniques. Dubbed as a traditional tonal impressionist, Janette will offer instructions and will give regular feedback on your progress in this two week intensive workshop. The Italian scenery provides a stimulating background, while you paint 'plein air'. For advanced artists, you have the opportunity to paint with other enthusiastic people.

After the tour, Janette will be travelling to Venice for 3 days. She prefers to travel by train (to see the countryside) and stay in a Venetian monastery. You are welcome to travel with her at your own cost. Janette is happy to suggest areas in Venice worth visiting, but will not be conducting any tours. Please mention Venice when speaking with Marina or Janette.
